Week 8 | Real-book guide

December 7 to 11 | A family prepares for winter, and each penguin responds in a different way.

One book, all subjects

Little Penguins | A family prepares for winter, and each penguin responds in a different way. Math: Compare picture groups of winter clothes or penguins with the week's fraction comparison strips. Science: Explore how clothing materials help keep a pretend penguin warm; observe and compare the test safely. Social studies: Recognize that family members can make different choices and identify ways a community prepares for cooler weather. Finish: Design a winter-weather outfit for a paper penguin and label each clothing choice.
